THE LIONESSES

2022 started with 3 coaches and a few players in each team. By season end, we were virtually bursting at the seams. There was a very exciting atmosphere throughout the whole group and this kept attracting more players.

The group worked very hard at ensuring every single person who wanted to be a part of South Gawler, was welcomed and felt welcomed.

Aisha Thomas led the way off the field as well as on the field, where her inspirational coaching and playing tenacity, was rewarded with Association Best and Fairest.

We look forward to our returning players and welcome any new players for 2023. Here's to a successful season!
